

PVI-FTC TeamCode Architecture

A beginner-friendly map of who talks to whom, who owns what, and where methods belong

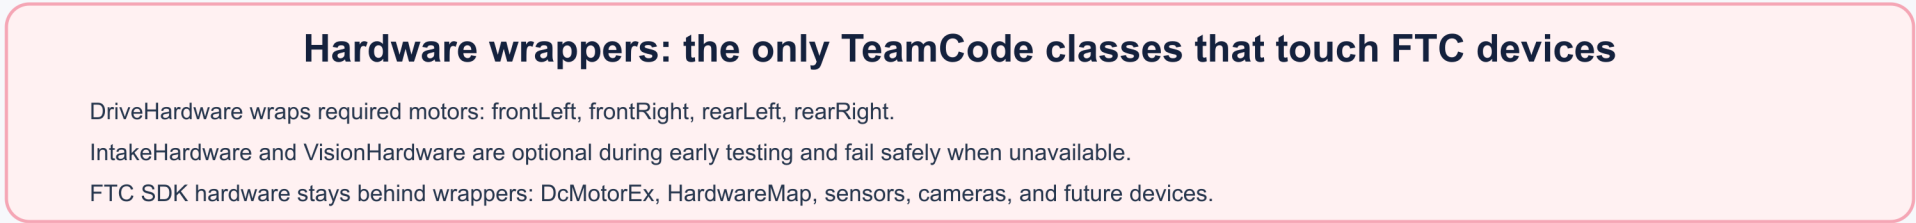

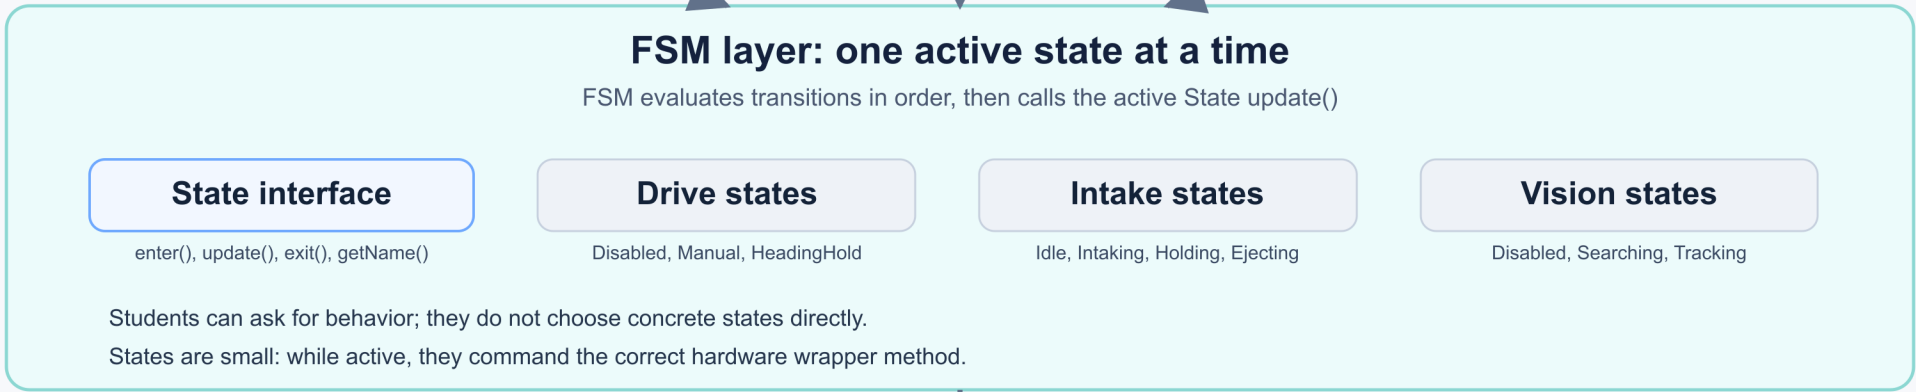

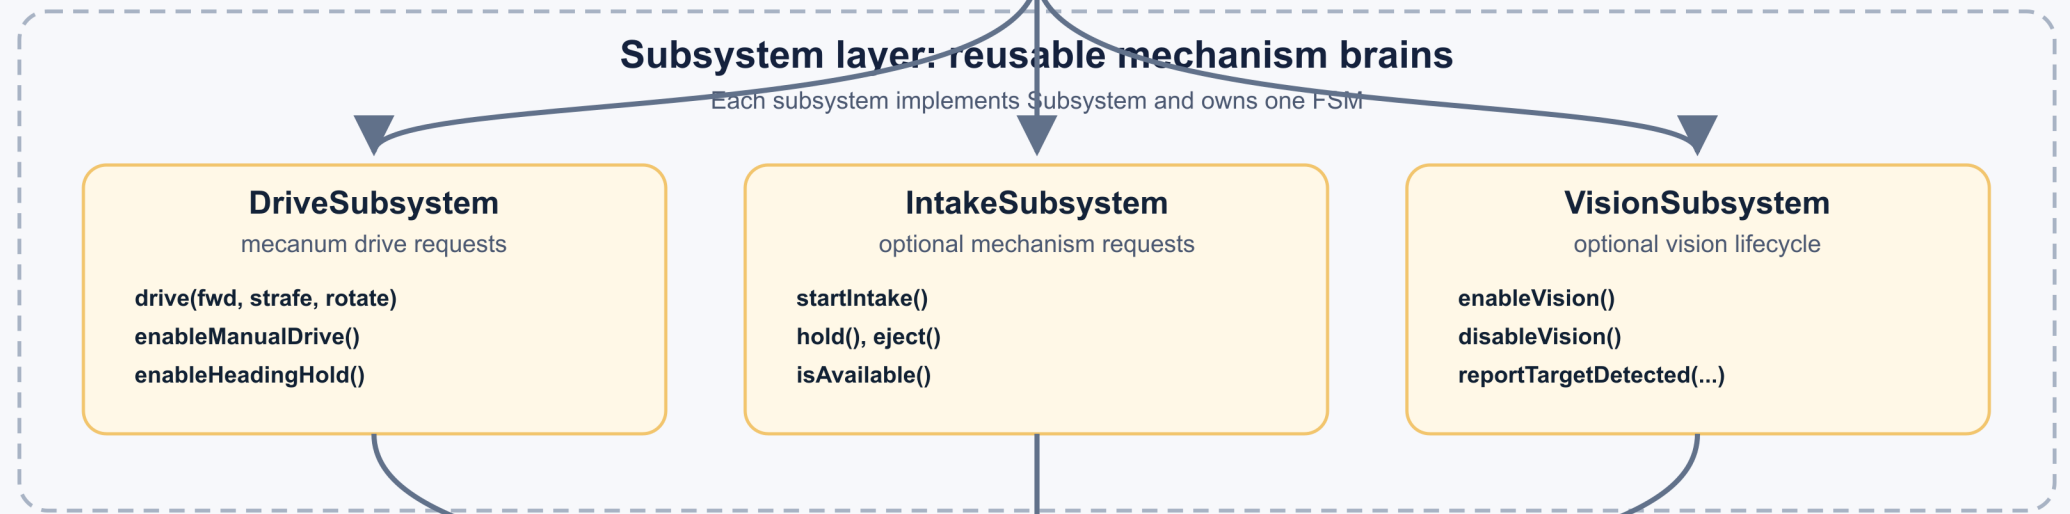

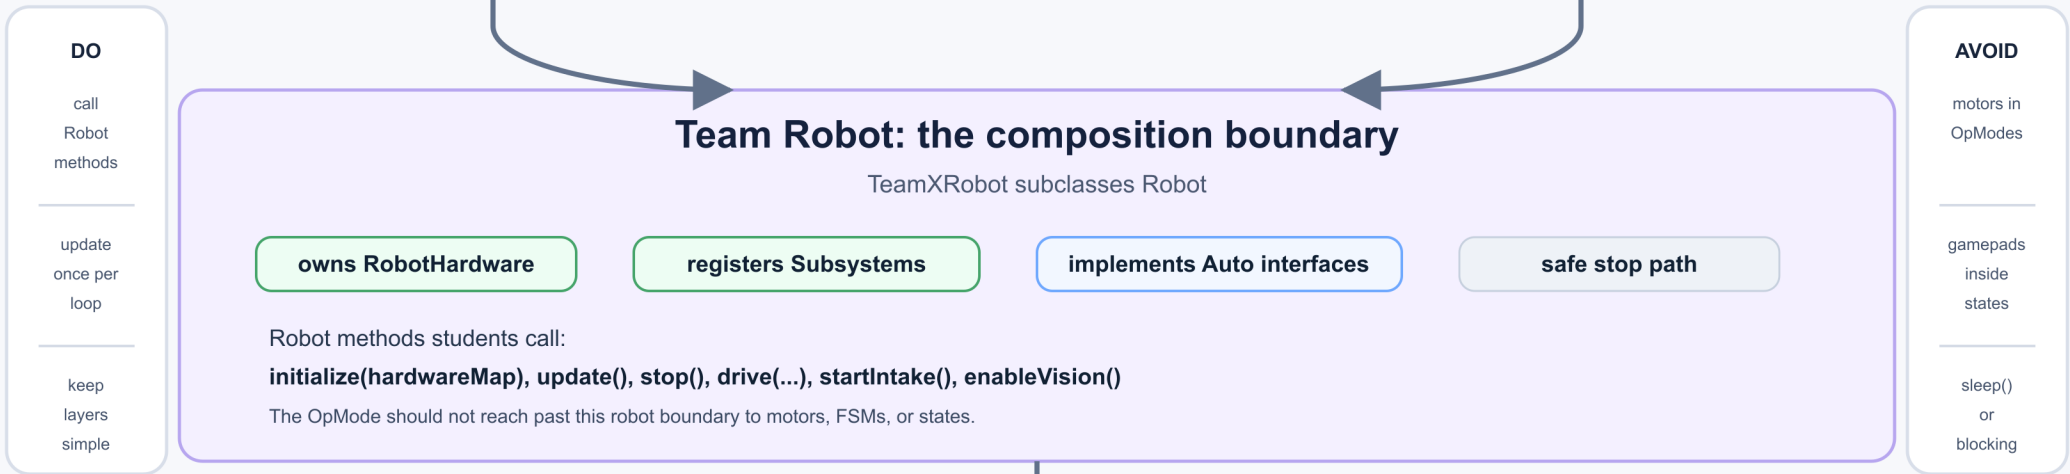

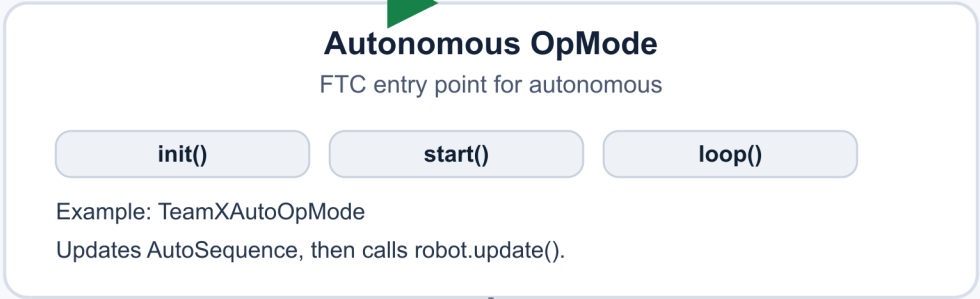

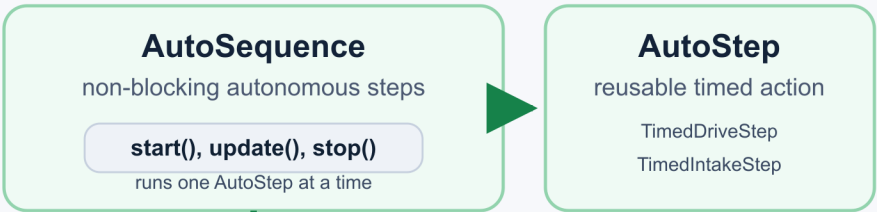

Golden rule: code talks downward through public methods.

OpModes read controls and request behavior. Robots own subsystems. Subsystems own FSMs. States command hardware wrappers.

TeleOp control path

Autonomous control path

Reading direction: top to bottom. Ownership direction: each layer owns or calls the layer below it.